REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
MILWAUKEE, February 12, 1880.

A State Convention of delegates representing the Republican party of Wisconsin, and of all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, is hereby called to meet at the Capitol in Madison, at twelve o'clock P. M., on Wednesday, May 27, 1880, for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket of ten electors to be supported by the party at the next Presidential election, and also to select twenty delegates, (two from each Congressional district and four from the State at large), to represent the Republican party of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention, which is called to meet at Chicago on the 24 day of June, A. D. 1880, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Each Senate and Assembly District is entitled to two delegates in the Convention.

November is fast approaching, and yet there is not even a shadow of a boom for the Democrats.

"The most popular man" in the Democratic party in Janesville proves to be the weakest candidate the party ever nominated.

When Mr. Davies runs again for Mayor he should let the people know that he is a candidate. Judging from the returns, very few knew he was in the field.

This appears to be another off year for the Democrats. They are losing municipal elections everywhere. Every year seems to be off to the Democratic party.

There is a strong probability that Iowa will send a united delegation to Chicago for Blaine. This will be obtained without any of the Cameron or the Conkling scheming.

Milwaukee and Janesville may well shake hands over the election. The Republicans of the former city elected their entire ticket except one candidate. The Council and Board of Supervisors are largely Republican.

The diff. between then and now is this: In 1879 the Janesville Republicans elected 14 and the Democrats 11 officers. This year the Republicans elect 17 and the Democrats get 5. Well, they haven't earned more than 5. Next year they will be fortunate if they get one.

If the Democrats want a campaign document for 1880, they should simply compile some historical facts relative to the record of the Democratic party in Congress during the past year. It is here compiled, the party would have no trouble in estimating its own worth.

In spite of the speculations that Blaine and Grant are growing in strength, the fact nevertheless becomes a bold one, that the opinion is spreading that Washburne would make the strongest candidate for the Presidency. His statesmanship and ability are honored by all political parties and his strength is unquestioned.

The women of Keokuk, Illinois, have gained a victory, and carried the day in electing village trustees of their own choice. These trustees were opposed to granting liquor license. At a town meeting in old Concord, Massachusetts, the women were permitted to vote for the school committee, and only twenty votes were cast, and the result was that three men and one woman were elected.

There has been quite a "boom" in the lumber business in the Northern part of this State. Along the Wisconsin Central railway, for nearly five miles north of Stevens Point, the cut of logs for the mills along the road has been 75 millions of feet greater than any other year, and this does not include maple, oak, walnut, and basswood. The lumber trade is becoming an enormous industry along the Wisconsin Central.

The victory won by the Republicans of Janesville, on Tuesday, is undoubtedly due to a large extent, to the work of organization, which was effected by the creation of the Republican Club several weeks ago. This brought the Republicans together for consultation, and enabled them to agree upon plans upon which the campaign should be conducted, and to carry these plans out successfully. Effective work was done in all the wards, and this without any wrangling or misunderstanding.

The silver dollar coined in 1894 is said to be worth $1000 to coin collectors. Recently, in New York, one was sold for $700. This great price for dollars of that year, is said to be on account of their scarcity. So far as is known, only 12 are known to exist both in this country and in Europe. There were 19,570 coined in that year, and in 1895, only 321, yet the 1895's are not quoted as high as those coined the year previous. Of the 12 known

WISCONSIN.

Result of the Municipal Elections in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—The city goes Republican by 235 majority. Scheutte is elected Mayor; Gelbke, Treasurer. The City Council stands two Democrats and ten Republicans. Gilson, for Circuit Judge has 343 majority in the city. His majority will reach 1,200 or 1,500 in the country.

EAU CLAIRE, April 6.—At the municipal election held to-day a very light vote was polled. J. B. Moore, Republican, was elected Mayor by 375 majority; John Hunner, City Clerk by 350, and B. S. Phillips Treasurer by 400 majority.

WATERTOWN, Wis. April 6.—The following is the result of our city election: Fred Kuehl, Democrat, Mayor—opposition A. Schumacher, Democrat, Treasurer, by a small majority, there being four in the field. The Common Council chosen is the ablest elected in many years.

MADISON, Wis. April 6.—The result of the election in this city is the election of Paul L. Spooner, Jr., Republican, by 163 majority over Judge Blais, for Mayor. The Democrats elect City Treasurer by 200 majority, and six out of ten Aldermen, and three out of five Supervisors. The Council will stand seven Republicans to eight Democrats. The municipal judgeship has created considerable excitement throughout the county, Judge Briley, Independent Democrat, contesting with Frank Parkinson. Ten towns and the city of Madison gives Briley 20 majority; the balance of the county will doubtless give Parkinson 500 to 400 majority.

OSHKOSH, April 6.—The election passed away quietly. A slight snow storm prevailed the entire afternoon, making matters generally disagreeable. Dr. Dale, the present Democratic Mayor, was elected by 20 majority over Beckwith, the Republican candidate.

KENOSHA, April 6.—The city election passed off quietly and resulted in the election of nearly the whole Republican ticket, including H. E. Clark, City Treasurer; D. B. Benedict, City Clerk; J. W. Beckman, Assessor, and James Irving, City Marshal. The struggle for Mayor was very exciting and resulted in the election of A. C. Stuehr, Republican, on the People's Joint ticket over Dr. Farr, the regular nominee, by fifty-eight majority.

BELOIT, Wis. April 6.—The local election was comparatively quiet here to-day, not more than a two-thirds vote being cast. Local questions, rather than party issues, decided the result. J. Hamilton Regart was elected Mayor by a majority of 220 over J. H. French; E. Crandall Treasurer by 41 majority over S. S. Goodale; Ira E. Goodall Police Justice by 33 majority over B. C. Rogers. Aldermen elected—C. Miller, First ward; H. M. Whitney, Second ward; L. E. Cunningham, Third ward; O. P. Smith, Fourth ward. Supervisors—C. C. Keeler, First ward; S. T. Merrill, Second ward; F. E. Rose, Third ward; W. James, Fourth ward. Justices of the Peace—E. P. King and P. M. Pierce.

WHITEWATER, April 6.—The spring election to-day was an unusually exciting one, and a very large vote was polled. A people's caucus was held on Saturday night which nominated a mixed ticket. The Republican caucus was captured last night by the moving spirit of the people's caucus, led by N. M. Littlejohn, and compelled to endorse the people's ticket. This performance was highly displeasing to the Republicans generally, and they supported a part of the mixed ticket, the balance being new candidates all of whom they elected. They put up no candidate against Littlejohn, who was running for Chairman of Supervisors, but he was badly scratched, and ran behind his ticket.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—The municipal election to-day passed off without any special feature. The vote was somewhat more than the average in extent. Brown has carried every ward in the city, with a total majority of 3,600. The only man on the People's ticket elected is Meiswinkel, for Municipal Clerk, whose majority is 500. The officers elected are as follows: Mayor, [Thomas H. Brown; Comptroller, George Paschen; Treasurer, A. B. Gelbke; Attorney, J. M. Bingham; Clerk, Julius Meiswinkel. The majorities for the four Republicans range from 3,000 to 4,000. The Common Council is two-thirds Republican, and the Board of Supervisors about 60 per cent. Republican. The result places Milwaukee in the rank of Republican strongholds. The wards have hitherto been about evenly divided between the two parties. The Third ward, made up exclusively of Irish, gives the Republican ticket a majority of 334, which is the greatest surprise of the whole event.

WORK OF FIENDS.

The Mobbing of the Colored Cadet Whittaker, at West Point.

POUGHKEEPSIE, April 6.—At 6 o'clock this morning, Johnson C. Whittaker, the colored cadet of the class of 1870, was found bound hand and foot in his room at the barracks with part of his ear cut off. The other ear was silt and his head was bruised. He stated three masked men attacked him while he was in bed, some time after midnight, and committed the outrage. General Schofield and Commander Luzelle are investigating the affair. It is believed the outrage was committed by cadets.

Cadet Whittaker made a statement to a reporter, in which he said three masked men entered his room sometime after midnight and jumped on him as he lay in bed. He struggled, but was choked and pounded and told if he made any noise he would be a dead man. They tied his hands and feet, placed him on the floor, and tied his feet to the bedstead. One said: "Let's mark him like they do dogs down South." They then cut the lower part of his left ear or three times, and again cutting him not to holler, left the room. An Indian club was found near him smeared with blood. Two of the men wore dark clothes and the third light grey, and all wore black masks. Whittaker had received warning on Sunday to keep awake. There is as yet no clue to the perpetrators, though the commandant has been investigating all day. Whittaker was found in a half unconscious condition, but he is able to-night to walk around. Each member of the cadet corps has been questioned about the occurrence.

TILDEN.

The Doctor Story About Tilden's Withdrawal Denied.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The story telegraphed from Washington that, after a conference with friends and prominent physicians, Tilden had formally withdrawn as a candidate for the Presidency, and named as his ex-Judge Payne, of Ohio, was the subject of general comment among politicians to-day. Tilden's personal friends ridicule the statement, pronouncing it ingenious but exceedingly gaudy. Republicans are inclined to think there is something in it, and Tammany was unusually exultant. Tilden sent out word to the interviewers that he was too busy to be seen. Capt. Ryderson, the veteran politician, saw Tilden, and subsequently said: "I know all about the story, and talked with Mr. Tilden about it an hour ago. There isn't a bit of truth in it, from beginning to end. Mr. Tilden is in better health now than for years. He has not been examined by any doctor, and there has not been any conference between him and his political friends about his withdrawal, and he hasn't said to any one he is not a candidate. I know whereof I speak, since my information comes direct from Mr. Tilden."

Mayor Cooper smiled when his opinion was asked. "We all know how such stories find publicity, and by whom they are originated. When I cannot say from personal knowledge that Mr. Tilden has not decided to retire from the canvass, I think it highly probable he has not." The old man is not to be forced out by any such Tammany dodge as a bogus Washington special.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, April 6.—The Post and Tribune instructed its correspondents throughout the State to make a canvass of Republicans at the polls at the spring elections on Monday to ascertain political preferences. Scattering returns are received to-day from forty counties, although no one county was thoroughly canvassed. These show the following result: Blaine, 10,921; Grant, 3,343; Sherman, 870; Washburn, 304; Edmunds, 139; scattering 714.

IOWA.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—Iowa is running unanimously for Blaine. Dispatches received in this city from J. S. Rannels, the Chairman of the Republican Central Committee of that State, reports that the conventions to elect delegates to the State Convention have been held in sixteen counties, electing in all 173 delegates. Of these, 137 are instructed for Blaine, and the other 36 have voluntarily pledged themselves to support Blaine.

CHIPPEWA LANDS.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Chippewa Indians who came here from Wisconsin a couple of weeks ago, have completed their arrangements with the Interior Department, under which the valuable pine lands owned by them are to be sold for their benefit. It has been found impossible to protect these lands from the timber thieves, and their sale to the public would bring a large revenue to the Indians.

ROAD SOLD.

MADISON, April 6.—The Madison & Portage Railroad was sold under foreclosure of mortgage to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company, the judgment being about $900,000.

HANGED HIMSELF.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—Charles Benz, a night watchman in the lower portion of Grand avenue, committed suicide to-day by hanging himself from a building in an alley near the Plankinton House. Family troubles were the cause.

Robert Toombs in Congress.
General Brisbane in The Philadelphia Press.

It was Mr. Wade who originated and brought forward that great measure, the "Homestead Bill," or, as he pleased to call it, "Land for the landless." The Southern men at once antagonized this bill with the slavery question, and Mr. Wade, accepting the issue, rushed to the contest with the battle cry of "Land for the landless against niggers for the niggerless!" The Southern men sought in every way to defeat the bill, but Wade made a powerful argument, and for the time completely routed his enemies.

While the bill was under discussion, Mr. Toombs referred to it, with a sneer, as a measure for white paupers, when Mr. Wade immediately arose and said: "Sir, you sneer at the Homestead bill because it gives land to the landless, do you? What is your pet scheme? Buying Cuba? Stealing niggers for the niggerless? We will go to the country upon it—land for the landless against niggers for the niggerless!"

Wade one day replied to Toombs, and to all appearance used language which would compel Toombs to challenge him. Several times he went to Mr. Wade and begged him to do so; but the old man grew more and more violent, until Toombs indicated his intention of calling Wade to account for the language he was using, when Wade quietly sat down, seemingly having accomplished his object. The Southern men looked at each other in surprise, and it was manifest to all that Wade had deliberately sought a quarrel with Toombs.

That night a friend of the Southern Senator called on Mr. Wade to know if he would retract the offensive words he had used. "No, I won't take back a d—d word," was Wade's emphatic reply. "Then," said the friend of Mr. Toombs, "it will be necessary for Mr. Toombs to challenge you to mortal combat." "That is just what I want, and we might have got to the point without all this palaver," said Wade. "You surely cannot be in earnest, Mr. Wade?" said the Southerner.

"Why, of course I am. You see, sir, we Northern men don't like to fight. Now, I am opposed to the code, and so are my constituents, but you fellows have broke Sumner's head, and we must spunk up a little or you will break all our heads. The shortest way to end the matter is to kill off a few of you and I have picked on old Toombs as my man. He will have to challenge me; then, of course, I will have the choice of weapons, and I'll take a my old rifle, and a—d—d me if I don't bring him down at the first crack."

When Toombs heard what Wade said he replied: "I can't challenge him; if I do the old brute will likely kill me."

It appears that Toombs and Wade had been out together shooting with a rifle several times, and a pile Toombs could shoot with a pistol he was a poor shot. Wade was an old hunter, and at a distance of a hundred yards could hit a dollar almost every time. Mr. Wade afterward said to :

"If old Toombs had challenged me that time, as I expected he would, I would have put a patch on my coat over the heart, and made him do the same thing, then the old fellow would have got demoralized when he saw me drawing a bead on his patch, and would have missed me, while d—d me if I wouldn't have cut his patch the first fire."

Not only did Mr. Toombs refuse to challenge Wade, but no Southern member of Congress could be induced to send him a challenge, no matter what he might say.

Family Life of President Hayes.

From a Sketch by General H. V. Boynton.
No election ever effected a more satisfactory and wholesome change in the private life of the Executive than that which opened it to the family of President Hayes. During Mr. Johnson's term and through the most of General Grant's administration the representatives of the great rings of the country were perfectly at home about the White House. The avenues of official approach were constantly open to them, and while the ladies of these two families maintained themselves with great credit the political life of the mansion through this long period was sickening to Republicans who desired honest government and a pure atmosphere about its officials. All this passed suddenly upon the inauguration of President Hayes.

The recognized managers of corrupt schemes, in all three grades, immediately discovered that there was nothing in common between themselves and the new order of affairs at the White House. In this respect the change has been such as honest citizens have reason to rejoice over. No lady has ever reflected greater credit upon her position than Mrs. Hayes. No affection ever stands in the way of any citizen paying respect to the President or his family, and only such restaurants exist as are inseparable from this exalted office. It is a household noted for its hospitality and generally enlivened by the presence of guests. Mrs. Hayes takes great interest in public matters, has a pride in keeping the house attractive and in superintending its decoration for official occasions.

It is a simple in its tastes and cordially united in its members. The sons are young men of most correct and industrious habits, affable, free from frivolity and without any of the affectation which so often attaches to the position which they occupy. The family is regular in its attendance upon church, and the White House on Sunday is as quiet and orderly as any American home.

The President is a most affectionate father, and a day seldom passes that he does not devote some time to games with the younger children. He is an exceedingly busy man, rising early and working late. He is a close student of all phases of public affairs, and an industrious reader of the histories of previous administrations. He is a strong and clear talker, and has decided ideas on all questions, which he expresses with force to those with whom he feels free to talk. He frequently walks in the morning and rides for a time before dinner, and thus by much exercise in the open air, he maintains his strength for long periods of each day's laboring in the countless applicants who pass in and out of his room in ceaseless procession for six days in a week.

He carries on a large private correspondence, and writes his own important messages and State papers. Much of this work he performs before breakfast. Calling on public business are received from 10 o'clock and business hours, either for the public or for members of Congress, do not cease till 3 o'clock. Cabinet officers and members of the press upon urgent business and others by special appointment are received at any time up to 10 o'clock, and some times as late as 11 o'clock at night. All writing days are thus filled up with business of the most varied and often perplexing character. And yet through it all the President maintains unvarying equanimity and the endless routine does not wear on him.

It is only by an inside knowledge of the difficulties which beset the opening of administration and those which surround the performance of much machine work under the surrounding proclamations of reform—difficulties such as have been in part presented in the course of this article—that proper standards can be obtained by which to measure either shortcomings of President Hayes or his noteworthy successes.

THE COUNT.

The Republicans Win a Most Glorious Victory.

Mayor Cobb Re-elected by an Overwhelming Majority.

The Republicans Make a Clean Sweep of Four out of the Five Wards.

Seventeen of Their Candidates Elected and Only Five from the Other Camp.

Comparative Majorities Show Heavy Republican Gains at Every Point.

Three Times Three and a Tiger.

The battle is over, and all guess work as to the result is at an end. The figures speak for themselves a jocular victory for the Republicans, who have elected nearly all their nominees on the city ticket, and have swept every ward in the city except the Fifth, the stronghold of Democracy, and even there they made a large gain, and one of their candidates came out with flying colors and a large majority, while the Democratic standard bearer himself in this ward was obliged to content himself with a majority of only 17, where last year the Democratic candidate for Mayor received a majority of 73. The Republican victory is one worth rejoicing over, as the Democrats put forward some of their best men, and they met with signal defeat.

The Republicans have elected Mayor Cobb, City Attorney Hyzer, Police Justice Nolan, City Sealer Denning, Aldermen Murdoch, Nowlan, Conrad, and Norris, Supervisors Metcalf, Brownell, Eldredge and Carle, School Commissioners, Valentine and Farnsworth, and Constables Taylor, Catts and Drake.

The Democrats have elected City Clerk Burgess, Justice Wickham, Aldermen Hemming, Supervisor Rathern and Constable Wright.

City Treasurer Haselton was the nominee of both Republican and Democratic conventions, and Constable Parker was an independent.

From this it will be seen that the Republicans elected seventeen of their candidates and the Democrats only five.

The political make-up of the Common Council has been greatly changed, and now promises better things. Last year there were but two Republicans in the Council, but this year has placed enough there so as to make it equally divided, and with a Republican Mayor, the majority is a Republican one. The following is the complexion of the new Council, the Republicans being in Roman and the Democrats in Italics:

WARD.	ELECTED.	Held Over.
1	Metcalf,	Coff,
2	Nowlan,	Coff,
3	Conrad,	Barnes,
4	Norris,	Robinson,
5	Hemming,	Burns,

The whole vote this year was a little lighter than for some years past as will be seen by the following:

EXCURSION TO LONDON.

It may not be generally known that this is the centennial anniversary of Robert Raikes' Sabbath School, established in June, 1780. In commemoration of the event, the Sabbath school workers in England have arranged for a Centenary or International Convention, to be held in London, commencing June 28 and holding until July 3. Delegates are to be appointed by each State Sabbath School Association. I am particularly anxious that Rock County (the oldest county association in the State) shall be well represented. The Chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Association, has empowered the undersigned to make appointments and furnish credentials entitling the holders to a seat in, and to take part in, the proceedings of the Convention. Delegates will be furnished tickets which by paying full fare going on the Steamship, will be entitled to a return passage free. A choice of several lines are offered. In case the holder desires, he can have an extension of six months on the return ticket. The qualification is simply that the applicant has been, and is now, connected with some School.

Pretty and Young.

In every feature but the hair, which had grown white from fever. This lady at 35 writes us: "I have used Parker's Hair Regulator six months, and am more than pleased with it. It has restored the natural brown color of my hair and given it a silky softness, nicer than ever before. There is no Dandruff, no falling hair, and it leaves the scalp so clean and nice and cool that I am ever so much pleased, and I feel and look like myself again." The beautiful, fresh and vigorous hair it produces, together with its property of restoring gray or faded hair to the natural youthful color, and entirely freeing the head from dandruff and itching, surprises no less than it pleases. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cents and $1.00 by all first class druggists.

From Rev. John Gregory, Pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Pittston, Pa.

MY DEAR SIR:—Having at various times personally, and in my own and other families, tested the great value of the medicine called Dr. FARRAR'S SWEETENED SOLUTION OF IODIDE OF IRON, I most cheerfully recommend it, especially to those who are suffering from dyspeptic and nervous disorders. As a reliable and powerful alternative, it is, I think, unsurpassed; and as a tonic, free from all the objectionable features of alcoholic remedies, it is a most efficient auxiliary to the temperance cause. One of the greatest hindrances to the temperance reform at present is, as I think, the medical use of alcoholic stimulants. Whatever may be argued as to their necessity in certain cases, we have, in the FARRAR'S SWEETENED SOLUTION, a safe and efficient substitute for the dangerous remedies. This testimony is given unhesitatingly, with the hope that some who are not yet acquainted with the valuable properties of the medicine may be induced to give it a trial. Sold by all druggists. For sale in Janesville by Farnsworth & Evanson. apr3dawm-wly

Extract from Report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, D. C., January 26, 1883.

MEERS, LAWRENCE & MARTIN, 111 Madison St., Chicago, Ill.: Gentlemen: I have received a "certified formula" giving the ingredients and relative proportions used in the manufacture of an article which you advertise and sell under the name of "TOLL, ROCK AND RYE." This compound, according to your formula, in the opinion of this office, would have a sufficient quantity of the ALCOHOLIC TOLL to give it all the advantages ascribed to this article in pectoral complaints, while the whiskey and the syrup constitute an emulsion rendering the compound an agreeable remedy to the patient.

In the opinion of this office, an article compounded according to this formula may properly be classed as a medicinal preparation under the provisions of Schedule A, following Section 3,547, U. S. Revised Statutes, and when so stamped may be sold by Druggists, Apothecaries and Other Persons without rendering them liable to pay special tax as liquor dealers.

Yours Respectfully, (Signed) GREEN E. RAULT, Commissioner.
